15 STIPULATION

17 On March 17, 2006, the defendant entered into a plea agreement with the United States in 18 which he agreed to cooperate with the United States. One of the matters in which the defendant 19 is cooperating is the prosecution of Mohammed Yousuf Chaudhry. The Chaudhry trial is 20 currently set to commence on September 24, 2007, and the United States anticipates that the 21 defendant will be called to testify pursuant to the terms of his plea agreement. That plea 22 agreement contemplates that the United States will make a motion for a downward departure to 23 the defendant's sentence after evaluating the assistance the defendant provides to the United 24 States. The United States will not be able to evaluate the full extent of the defendant's 25 cooperation until after he has testified at trial in the Chaudhry matter. Therefore, the parties stipulate and agree that the sentencing in this matter should be continued until after the Chaudhry

1 trial is completed. Because the Chaudhry trial is anticipated to last until early October, 2007, the 2 parties agree that the sentencing date of October 29, 2007, is appropriate and request that the 3 Court continue sentencing in this matter until that date.
